Tom Schepperly, vice president of trade sales for Pella By Horne of Traverse City, received the 2018 Directors Award from the Pella Corporation executive team. The award is presented annually to two managers. According to a release from Pella, the award is "for outstanding leadership that has led to growth and development of the brand." Schepperly has been with Pella By Horne for more than 30 years.

The Builders Exchange of Northwest Michigan elected its officers for 2019. Serving one-year terms beginning on Jan. 1 are president Jack Ocobock of D&W Mechanical, vice president Darek Purgiel of Grand Traverse Construction, secretary Keely Trombly of Interphase Interiors and treasurer Charlie Sole of Hallmark Construction.

Sarah Hunt has joined the sales team in the Traverse City office of Michigan Broadband Services. The fiber optic and telecommunications service provider is headquartered in Carney, but has a Traverse City office in The Village at Grand Traverse Commons.

One of Adam Schriber's students won the 2018 Alfred Dunhill golf tournament on the PGA European Tour. Schriber is the director of instruction at LochenHeath Golf Club. David Lipsky won the tournament by two shots. It was Lipsky's second PGA European Tour win, his first since 2014. Schriber works with LochenHeath members as well as touring professional and amateur players. Schriber, who was named one of Golf Magazine's Top 100 teachers, has also worked as an instructor with The David Leadbetter golf academies for 10 years.

Jason Horton of Elmer's Crane and Dozer, Inc. has been elected to the 2019 board of directors for the Builders Exchange of Northwest Michigan. Horton started his career at Elmer's in 1999 as a design engineer working on private and municipal projects and in 2011 became the division manager for Elmer's Concrete. Horton also serves on the Michigan Concrete Association board. The association owns/manages Michigan Construction, an effort to get more people into the trades. The Traverse City Central High School graduate earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from Michigan Tech University.

David P. Glenn, of the Traverse City firm of Alward, Fisher, Rice, Rowe & Graf, was named as Two Years 10 Best Real Estate Law Attorneys for Client Satisfaction. The award is from the American Institute of Legal Counsel, a third-party rating organization that publishes an annual list of the Top 10 attorneys in each state. Selection for the 10 Best is based on client and/or peer nominations, research and AIOLC's evaluation.

The Community Foundation elected five new directors for the 2019-20 board year, including a youth representative. Maria Ascione, a junior at Traverse City St. Francis High School, is the first youth representative on the board and will represent Grand Traverse County. The other board members are Terry Beamsley (Leelanau County), Rachel Birgy (Kalkaska), Cash Cook (Kalkaska) and Royce Ragland (Antrim).

Rehmann has promoted Certified Public Accountant Joshua Sullivan to principal in the firm's Traverse City office. Sullivan joined Rehmann in 2005 and has experience providing audit and consulting services to a range of clients. Sullivan, who earned his bachelor's degree in professional accountancy from Saginaw Valley State University, is a member of the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Construction Financial Management Association. He also serves as the treasurer on the board of directors at Angel Care Childcare Center and the Great Lakes Children's Museum.

Charles Garrison Jr. has joined the Kalkaska office of C&M Insurance. Garrison has experience working with clients on their health insurance needs, including Medicare for seniors. Garrison also has a background as a life insurance agent in mortgage and income protection, succession planning, estate planning and risk/asset protection. A 10-year combat veteran with the Army's 18th Airborne Corps, Garrison has a degree in business management from Central Texas College. Garrison has lived in the Torch Lake area for 12 years and is an active volunteer in several organizations, including the Elk Rapids International Lions Club.

David Hricik has joined Century 21 Northland. A 2018 Leadership Grand Traverse graduate, Hricik just became a member of the Grand Traverse Area Association of Realtors board. A Michigan State University-educated engineer, Hricik has seven years of experience negotiating large contracts. He is also a volunteer with Big Brothers Big Sisters.
