Christmas Kindness shops for Gladwin County children

Dec 16, 2020

GLADWIN COUNTY – Thanks to the generosity of many gracious people this week, Christmas Kindness was able to send eight of their best shoppers out with instructions to “shop ‘til they drop!” Janie Ogg and Beulah Mead even got in on the fun and took an entire day to shop for kids that have not yet been adopted.

The duo used financial donations from Gladwin and Beaverton residents who truly care for families in need, but have no time to shop for them. Christmas Kindness counts it as a privilege to be entrusted with those financial donations, and Christmas Kindness Shoppers work hard to make sure they get the most bang for the donated bucks!

Gladwin County Christmas Kindness contributors continue to “come out of the woodwork,” so to speak. Robinson Industry faithfully supports Christmas Kindness in many significant ways, including providing some of their best volunteers. Many of the Robinson and Kaleto family members volunteer a lot of their time to do the actual work of Christmas Kindness!

Mike Bonomo’s Annual Fun Run has always been a cheerful giver to Christmas Kindness and, even in this year of COVID-19, managed to give above and beyond their usual generous donation.

Janet Yuergens, Melissa Castillo, Jeff and Michelle Wilson, Vern and Nancy Purdy, and Peggy Miceli also sent along their Christmas Kindness donations this week, and these gifts were received with joy and gladness from the Christmas Kindness team. Kevin Graham from Team Elmer’s Crane Service in Beaverton not only brought more help for kids not yet adopted, but also spoiled the Christmas Kindness office staff with some holiday M & Ms and cashews.

Christmas Kindness would like to remind every one that Distribution Day is to be held this Saturday (Dec. 19) at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gladwin.
