

GETTING TO WORK

Cold start to construction

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Construction started on the Maple Street drainage project Monday morning with crews ripping up concrete slabs and hauling them away. Parking on the east side of the street between Water and River streets has been temporarily suspended and no lane closures are expected. The work will improve drainage issues on the street and is anticipated to be complete by May 17.

PHOTOS BY ERIC SAGONOWSKY • STAFF WRITER